

MY CRYSTAL SPACESHIP VISION: #3.

1/9/25

About a week ago I was asleep. Suddenly I was totally lucid and awake, although I was in a room that I didn't recognize. Standing before me were nine angels in shining robes. It was Nephi, Moronihah, Zeph, Adamnan, Com, Corom, Shulem, Olimlah, and Zebadee. I was excited to see them but suddenly got a strange feeling. I said, "I am feeling a strange spirit; I need to shake your hands and detect this vision. I have repented of all my false Revelations since I have seen you brethren last, and have been blessed to be healed of being defiled, and have partaken of the sacrament, and have been filled with the Holy Spirit as I have renewed my covenants with Benbanuh. Since I have done all this, I need to know for myself if these Crystal Spaceship Visions are true." The moment I said these words each of the Angels started shifting in discomfort and fear. After this I suddenly seemed to have power over the vision, not unlike someone has power over a lucid dream. "Show me your true selves," I said abruptly and in a commanding voice. No sooner than after saying this, the countinances of the Angels started distorting, or glitching, or melting away. Standing before me were nine gray aliens. They had huge black eyes, moist grayish skin, and very large heads. They looked afraid and naked in a sort of way. I called upon the vision to supply me with a weapon that I may begin the work of death among them, when suddenly they all started pleading with me. "Don't hurt us!" They said. The one who had been Shulem stepped forward and said, "Please forgive us for deceiving you. I have given you almost all of the Revelations that you have received since being in prison, almost all of which you have thrown away. I am Sampazar the second in command to Heth, whom ye call Satan, or that old serpent the devil. If you only knew how cool all the revelations are that I have given you, or if you could only remember, you wouldn't hate me. Look, in ancient days I was Aphrodite."

Once Sampazar said this his gray alien form began transforming into the body of a Hermaphrodite. He was naked with large breasts and a penis, but something about his face didn't transform all the way so that it looked like he had two noses, one overlaid over the other one. He began to cry and say, "I am trying to make a really cute nose but it isn't working; you are looking at me too hard." "No, I am looking at you with discernment," I said.

Sampazar made two cats appear and turned around to try and fix his nose. Sampazar began weeping because it wasn't working. "I always just wanted you to love me!" He said. "You must repent," I said. "I can't, God Hayah afflicts us and expects us to be okay, his requirements are too much to bear!" "They refine us if we make Christ Benbanuh, and his Atonement, our rock, and the Love of God Hayah, our firm foundation."

I asked Sampazar, "Why did you guys restore unto me my 2017 Revelations verbatim, knowing that they are good Revelations?" "We restored them to you to win you over, and to convince you that we were good angels, so that you would believe the second Crystal Spaceship Vision, which containeth our doctrine. I confess to you, because you are constraining me by your Priesthood, but please still love me!" Sampazar continued to cry.

I awoke, and it was 5:44, and so I went back to sleep.

LOVE Sam-
