

THE CRYSTAL TABLET OF TRUE KEYS-"ME"

Revealed to Betty, on 7/17/24

Hayah's hand is in all things. Hayah is like a cloud of light particles that fills all things, and is through all things. Hayah knows all things, because he is a man who is from outside, (and is inside) the Universe. Hayah's hand is in every particle within the Universe. Hayah is the true and Living God over the whole Universe!

Benbanuh who is the Son of Hayah, is the God of space, the heavens, and all the worlds. Benbanuh creates all the suns, moons, and planets, of every kind.

Nisbat is a hermaphrodite who emerged from the super condensed crystalline substance called Origen or Mana, that is under the surface of every planet, and which is full of intelligence. Mana is used by the Gods to 3D print all substances.

Aspion is the son of Nisbat, and is the physical and spiritual father of all humanity. Benbanuh took the Mana and used it to 3D print crystal spaceships for Aspion and his children. Benbanuh also created the worlds for Aspion and his children.

An Iuh, is the core experiencing principle, or being, that is actually experiencing the five senses. Iuh are quantum particles or infinitely small points of force, that are what actually experience the data of the senses. There are infinite amounts of Iuh, and Iuh are from the light realm, from beyond the Universe, and flowed into the Universe as it expanded. Iuh are the children of Hayah, and Hayah is the God of all Iuh.

Iuh come in packets of two, one orbiting the other. One Iuh is the dominant Iuh, and one Iuh is the submissive Iuh. The dominant Iuh becomes the male spirit child, while the submissive Iuh becomes the female spirit child, when the Iuh became clothed in spiritual information systems, or bodies, by the natural copulation of Aspion and his wife.

Hayah was called Heh, and his wife Hebet by the Egyptians, which denotes the twilight. Hayah was called Ea, and his wife Damkina by the Sumerians.

Benbanuh was called Amon, and his wife Amaunet by the Egyptians, which denotes power. Benbanuh was called Anu, and his wife Ninsun by the Sumerians, or "heaven."

Nisbat was called Nun, and her wife Nunet by the Egyptians, which denotes the waters of the Mana, or Origen. Nisbat was called Tiamat by the Sumerians.

Aspion was called Kek, and his wife Keket by the Egyptians, which denotes darkness. Aspion was called Apsu by the Sumerians, which is pure waters of the deep.

Hayah and Benbanuh are the Gods of Light. While Nisbat and Aspion are the Gods of darkness and matter. Iuh are the highest form of Light, while Mana, or the Origen, is the highest form of matter. Spiritual material is the source of strong and weak electromagnetic force. Berionic material is the source of strong and weak atomic force. Mana is the source of strong and weak Gravity. Strong electromagnetic force, and Strong Gravitational force have never been observed by mortal Earthians.

In organizing the observable Universe Benbanuh created red and blue stars, he created Red, Blue, Purple, Green, and many other colored Gas Giants. He made livable planets that are tidal locked and rotating, and some with blue atmospheres, and some with golden atmospheres. Benbanuh created every kind of world in outerspace, and he is the light, life, and Glory of them all! Benbanuh creates and redeems every world, and suffers for their inhabitants, being connected to all the light particles and intelligence on every world—he being one with Hayah, whose hand is in all things.

Nisbat was born from the intelligence within the super condensed crystalline Mana that was beneath the surface of Neptune, when this solar system was still in a red nebula. She put her seed into the Mana to make Aspion and his Iuh counterpart, or twin sister spirit. From them descend all the human species, including Marduk who is Adam. Hayah, Benbanuh, Nisbat, and Aspion are the true Gods. Mana is perfected matter, and our core experiencing being is Iuh. Love is the true nature of reality. Even so.

AMEN!
