

Revelation given to Abraham, on 7/9/21:

Thus saith the Lord: Mine son, lo and behold in Daniel it is written that there shall be an overspreading of abominations, and that he shall make it desolate, even until the consumation, and that determined shall be poured out, even upon the desolate. Wherefore ye see that the punishment in the midst of the week doth not all come at once, but is progressive; and therefore ye can also see that that which ye wrote unto John yesterday is not entirely correct, but only correct in part. For, the transgression which bringeth desolation did not all happen at once, but was also progressive, which this nation committed against thee, mine disciples. - Even mine Apostles, who am the Lamb of God! And now, the desolation which correlates unto the order of that corrupt judge will be the Lamanites and other peoples of the South coming in upon this nation, and taking their own little ones; but when ye see this fear not, for it is a just recompence, and thy own little ones shall be far from danger, yea they are perfectly safe in mine hands, I see the beginning unto the end, and mine hand is in, and upon, all things, who am Jesus Christ; even the Love which is in the bosom of all things! I am the same yesterday, today, and forever, one Eternal round. Therefore neither shall ye weep much for them, even they who appear to be innocent in this matter, for ye know not their Inu; but I know every Inu, that hath ever been born upon the earth, and upon all other earths and worlds, saith the Lord!

I am thy God, even the God of all Israel, and Israel himself and his condemnation shall be punished with the first great act of war, even the Lights going out for one week. Which thing symbolizeth this final week, that shall judge, condemn, curse, wound, kill, and cleans the wicked from off the face of the earth, saith the Lord of hosts! And now these torments of mind and deprivations, and all things ye suffered after being condemned, shall be answered by Me, upon their heads as a progressive work of desolation and destruction among them. And those who shall be refined thereby, choosing to be humble and repent, shall be saved in my kingdom, whether in life or in death, by Me, their savior, even the judge of both quick and dead! But behold, the more part of the whole earth will only harden their hearts, hating humility as it pertaineth unto them, wherefore an Eternal and Endless punishment awaits them; humiliation, pain, and destruction in this world, and endless torment in the world to come. And now that which I spoke unto Isaiah shall be fulfilled, saying that thine accusers who afflicted thee shall not be found, yea, ye shall not know where to find them; either which dung or ashes, neither the place that their spirits reside; lest ye are tempted to have mercy against mine judgement, and incur just punishment, for my beloveds shall not pray for those who afflicted them, saith thy God. For I am a jealous God, whom loveth thee; whom loveth Me, and I shall have thy love undistracted forever, saith the Lord.

And now, ye wonder concerning thy last days Revelation in 2017. Verily, verily, I say unto you, that Revelation is true, and only hath two small interpolations. One, when ye say, "this year," it being an interpolation only because I did say, "In the year that this shall happen," and also the insertion of "(2018)" in parenthesis, ye knowing that I said that not, as it pertaineth unto a trump that will sound in September, but not this September; but ye added it for clarity's sake according unto thine own understanding. Ye being sure, desperate, and compromised in judgement. And ye did also miss other things; like the statement I made about the democrats commanding the boarder in the first judgement; and also that I would refine thee before all these things. I the Lord shall do mine own work, and ye cannot compromise it's power, wisdom, and fulfillment, saith the Lord. And now, John did detect that Revelation correctly, and it is a good Revelation. Behold it shall all come to pass, and it shall be a treasured Revelation in the standard works of the Saints, even until the end of the millennium, saith thy Holy God! And now people will marvel at it's accuracy for generations, and it shall be held up, even along side Isaiah; and those who mocked it shall be very ashamed, yea, they shall be ashamed for not bearing thee up, and trying to figure it out with thee. I shall have mercy on thee forever! Mercy for thee shall cover the whole world, as the flood of Noah covered the entire face of the earth!

To: John.

7/9/21

And, behold, I the Lord, hath not forgotten thy first afflictions, for behold, this very drought began in the midst of May, and it shall only increase and not decrease. So also $3\frac{1}{2}$ years before the start of this so called "pandemic," was the time that Babylon first attempted to infringe on thy rights through the agency of Carolyn. Wherefore, I the Lord hath not forgotten anything that hath been done against thee. Ye, and John, and thine, are the apple of my eye saith the Lord of hosts! Therefore, afflictions on the head of this nation will increase until the great judgements of which I the Lord have spoken in thy former last days Revelation. And thus ye see, that since thy Revelation was correct, the Lamanites shall begin afflicting the people in November. The lights shall go out for a week at the end of December. Tensions will rise in correlation with thy deprivations, ye experienced when ye first made an attempt on thy own life, which thing I blessed thee against when I said that no deadly poison shall hurt thee. An attack will happen on this nation's soil like unto the event of September, in the midst of March, in correlation with things John experienced, as also, the lights going out permanently in the middle of April, and the invasion in June.

And now, one new mystery I shall reveal unto you. Lo, John shall be delivered first at the beginning of next year, yea, he also shall be taken up and see unspeakable things, which things he saw, including his future self in heaven, upon the Isle of Patmos. And now be patient and steadfast, for ye shall not be delivered at that time, nor when the war begins, but ye shall be delivered in the Spring, after there is no electricity. But fear not, my little Lamb! John shall prepare all things before thee! Yea, he shall gather thy house with power; and when ye are called out of darkness, though ye have experienced much affliction, even so, ye shall be led, as on my Holy highway unto them, and shall see them in June upon the hills of Zion, yea, even among the pines, quaking aspens, and meadows. And behold, ye shall be led by a light, like unto a UFO, and once ye are reunited the invasion of this nation shall begin. Wherefore ye shall see, in the distance behind you, blood, fire, and vapors of smoke. But as ye walk and forsake the ground behind you, even so shall that ground be cursed by the dust of thy feet, and though it be like Eden, it shall be soon a desolate wilderness. And as much, and as long as ye trembled with the cup of afflictions, I shall pay unto Babylon double for all her sins. And now as I hath Revealed previously, there shall be a thundering, and an earthquake like unto a Trump in September, and in March I shall give thee two great wings like an eagle to take thee unto thy final place, which place will be protected against all armies, even by the earth. And now, John shall not remain with you, but he shall go with Alina unto Jerusalem, for there is only one week appointed to accomplish all things; save the refining of the more righteous in the gentile nations, for 42 years, during the millennium. Which thing will be controlled in-as-much as they worship Me at Jerusalem once in a year. And now, I know that there hath been some disputation among you concerning this thing about timing, and John leaving thee in the wilderness. But behold, let there not be disputations among you, my beloved, and much loved counterparts! For lo, it is not fully one way or the other as there is a time betwixt the first $3\frac{1}{2}$ years and the second $3\frac{1}{2}$, which second $3\frac{1}{2}$ years hath been calculated with exactness by the prophets. And it is not exactly a week, because a week of years is calculated in decades by the gentiles, wherefore they make agreements in decades, and not in weeks, as my people do.

And now, $3\frac{1}{2}$ years from this very day, the judgements upon this land shall be subsiding, as by then, the people of this nation shall be a very small, and weak people. Yea, they shall all be women, and children, and the very few men left will be impotent if they be a gentile, old, and weak; but if they be elect, then they shall be valued as their volume in gold of Ophir. For Zion shall flourish upon this land just before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord! And behold, John shall sorely afflict the kingdom of the beast, and they shall count him as an alien, and themselves as victims, but their lies and dark sayings shall not stand, but they will be shown as fools, and their wisdom, foolishness, in the eyes of their women and children. I am with thee until the end! Even so.

Yea, after Armageddon, I shall cleanse the whole earth at my coming with fire! I come quickly! Even so. AMEN!

P.S. Benbanah says He is allowing me to warn my family with this one, provided that I command them to repent, and believe in your calling.
